Carla van de Puttelaar

Biography

Danziger Gallery is pleased to announce its representation of the Dutch artist Carla van de Puttelaar. Best known for her luminous nude studies characterized by their exquisite use of light and subtle color, van de Puttelaar's pictures engage the sense of touch almost as much as the sense of sight.

Born in 1967, Carla van de Puttelaar is a graduate of the Gerrit Rietveld Academie in Amsterdam. Her work has been exhibited in The Netherlands, Hungary, Germany, Belgium, France, Spain, Korea and the United States. Collections holding Puttelaar's work include Museum Winterthur (Switzerland) and Huis Marseille Museum voor Fotografie (The Netherlands). She has had her work published in numerous publications, with a monograph published by Le Caillou Bleu (Belgium) in 2008.
